

CBC TV 's Doc Zone produced a series of documentaries from 2009 to 2012 about the role propaganda played during World War Two, The Cold War and the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq.

These documentaries looked at the effects of propaganda leading up to massive human tragedy and subsequent wars. You can view videos online.

PROPAGANDA IN WWII:

<http://www.cbc.ca/player/Shows/Shows/Doc+Zone/Love+Hate+and+Propaganda/ID/2332161696/>

The series include newsreels, posters, speeches, rallies, songs and radio to show how entire populations were convinced to go to war in WW2 and what lead up to wars against Iraq and Afghanistan.

Six part documentary series about the role propaganda played during World War Two. With newsreels, posters, speeches, rallies, songs and radio, entire populations were convinced to go to war.

Episode 1: The Strong Men

Episode 2: Meet the Enemy

Epispde 3: Progaganda: Hiding the Horrors

Episode 4: Truth and Total War

Episode 5: Changing the Story

Episode 6: Selling the War

Episode 7: Hate and Propaganda

Each episode is 43-45 minutes.

Expert Interviews found on line as well.